

Thriving as a Therapist: Exploring Advanced Professional Development Opportunities
February 1, 2013; 1pm-4pm
$25 Registration

A Symposium for Therapists Looking for Fresh Enrichment in Their Professional Lives

Session 1 Options, 1pm-2:20pm:

Navigating the World of Licensing Boards – Steve Benson, MA, MDiv, LPC, LCAS-A

In this seminar, we will focus on navigating licensing boards, exploring practical steps, and receiving general tips to advance through the process of obtaining full professional licensure.

I have a map with EFT/Gottman – Jennie Hopper, LMFT-A, LPC-A and Mike Vaughn, LPC

An overview of Emotionally Focused Therapy and Gottman Family Therapy, what is involved in advanced training, and how they enrich work as a couples therapist.

Big “M” Little “m”: Marketing for People Helpers – Kelley Bolton, PhD

This seminar is ideal for anyone who wants to learn more about marketing yourself and your services in order to grow your practice and ultimately help more people. Participants will gain exposure to successful models of marketing for independent practice and they will be presented with practical tools and strategies for building and implementing an effective marketing plan.

Session 2 Options, 2:40pm-4pm:

Additional Opportunities for Training in Psychotherapy – David Carl, MDiv, BCC, APCE Supervisor, and Steve Bennett, ThM, PhD

This seminar will focus on the multiple placement opportunities for advanced training within the Carolinas HealthCare System and at the Psychoanalytic Training Center of the Carolinas.

Entering and Engaging in the Beauty of Chaos – Steve Benson, MA, MDiv, LPC, LCAS-A

In this seminar, we will explore important thoughts about how we, as professional counselors, can engage in relational brokenness and enter the beauty of chaos through the power of the gospel.